UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT

BRIEFING ORDER - NLRB

No. 16-1099, AT&T Mobility Services, LLC v. NLRB
22-CA-127746, 22-CA-127781

Under Fed. R. App. P. 15.1, a party adverse to the National Labor Relations Board proceeds first on briefing and at any scheduled argument. Briefing shall proceed on the following schedule:

Record due from NLRB: 03/14/2016

Appendix due from adverse party: 03/14/2016

Opening brief due from adverse party: 03/14/2016

Response brief due from NLRB: 04/14/2016

Reply brief permitted within 14 days of service of response brief.

Effective October 1, 2015, the court requires only one paper copy of briefs and appendices unless the case is to be argued, in which event four paper copies are required. (Local Rules 30(b)(4) & 31(d)). The notice tentatively assigning a case for argument requires counsel to file three additional paper copies of their previously filed briefs and appendices.

The briefs and appendix must conform to the Fourth Circuit Brief & Appendix Requirements (available as a link from this order and at www.ca4.uscourts.gov). All parties to a side must join in a single brief, even in consolidated cases, unless the court has granted a motion for leave to file separate briefs pursuant to Local Rules 28(a) and 28(d).

If a case has not been scheduled for a mediation conference, but counsel believes such a conference would be beneficial, counsel should contact the Office of the Circuit Mediator directly at 843-521-4022, and a mediation conference will be scheduled. In such a case, the reason for scheduling the conference will be kept confidential.

Failure to file an opening brief within the scheduled time will lead to dismissal of the case pursuant to Local Rule 45 for failure to prosecute; failure to file a response brief will result in loss of the right to be heard at oral argument and may lead to imposition of sanctions if counsel has failed to comply with the court's directives. The court discourages motions for extension of time and grants extensions of the briefing schedule only in extraordinary circumstances upon a showing of good cause. Local Rule 31(c). If a brief is filed after its due date, the time for filing subsequent briefs will be extended by the number of days the brief was late.

Pursuant to Local Rule 34(a), the court may, on its own initiative and without prior notice, screen an appeal for decision on the parties' briefs without oral argument. If a case is selected for the oral argument calendar, counsel will receive notice that the case has been tentatively calendared for a specific court session approximately two months in advance of the session.
